2. The Council will nominate members of the following body:

Committee for Programme and Coordination (E/1998/L.1/Add.)

In accordance with Economic and Social Council resolution 2008 (LX) and General Assembly decision 42/450, seven members are to be nominated for election by the General Assembly, at its fifty-third session, to fill the vacancies in the Committee for Programme and Coordination that will occur on 31 December 1998. The term is three years, beginning on 1 January 1999. The vacancies are to be filled according to the following pattern:

Three members from African States;

Three members from Asian States;

One member from Latin American and Caribbean States.

In addition, the Council is to nominate one member from Western European and other States for a term beginning on the date of election and expiring on 31 December 1999.

3. The Secretary-General will submit for confirmation by the Council the names of persons nominated to serve as representatives on the functional commissions of the Council since the suspension of the organizational session for 1998.

4. The Council will appoint members of the following bodies:

Committee for Development Planning (E/1998/L.1/Add.)

The Council is to appoint 24 experts, upon the nomination of the Secretary-General, for a term of one year beginning on 1 January 1999.

Board of Trustees of the International Research and Training Institute for the Advancement of Women (E/1998/L.1/Add.)

In accordance with article III of the statute of the Institute, the Board of Trustees is composed of 11 members nominated by States and appointed by the Economic and Social Council, with due regard to the fact that the Institute and its work are funded from voluntary contributions and to the principle of equitable geographical distribution. Members of the Board serve in their personal capacities for a term of three years from the date of appointment. They are eligible for reappointment by the Council for one further term.

The term of office of three members of the Board expires on 30 June 1998. Taking into account the existing de facto geographical balance of the Board, endorsed by the Council at previous sessions, the Council is to appoint one member from African States, one member from Latin American and Caribbean States and one member from Western European and other States for a three-year term, beginning on 1 July 1998. The names of the candidates submitted by their Governments and their curricula vitae will be before the Council.
